According to the way things are looking now there is very little chance of the Central league pennant going to any other city except Grand Rapids. Here's the way the thing stands: If Fort Wayne wins every one of the 25 games remaining on the schedule and if the Blacksox win but ten out of the bunch, the awo teams will then be tied for first honors, At the present time Grand Rapids has won 72 and lost 34 games. Ten games won would give them 82 won and 50 lost. By winning 25 in a row, the Billikens would have the same per-

Even these figures practically concede the flag to Grand Rapids, as the Smith combination would hardly lose 15 out of the remaining games. They are going at a great clip and there is hardly a chance in the world of them falling down.

Ben Koehler, the crack second sacker of the Grand Rapids club and a former Bender, will report to the Jersey City team the minute the minute the Blacksox have won their 80th game. Pfeffer and Koehler were both sold with the understanding that they would be delivered the minute the gonfalom was cinched for the furniture makers.
